

THE BAMBOO BLONDE

On their second honeymoon, a woman's husband is arrested for murder. Griselda Satterlee is beginning to regret her second marriage to Con. Their honeymoon was supposed to be joyous, romantic, and full of glamor—all of the things their first marriage wasn't—but instead they are spending it on Long Beach, a Navy town whose fleets have all shipped out to sea. The tedium of Long Beach cannot compare to the insult Con gives Griselda one night, when he picks...

Reader's Opinions

Solid quirky pulp novel that has a bit of hollywood noir, espionage, and really strong female characters, who shouldn't be mistaken for typical femme fatales. On FB i called this book - proto Highsmith... I stand by that, not so literary as Highsmith perhaps, but just as grey in its portrayal of heroes and villains.
