Reader's Opinions

Adventure, mystery and faith make this an inviting story. Cocoa Walker is determined to make it own her on and provide for her two-year old daughter, Brianna. So she decides to open a coffee shop and her first customer is Bill James. Bill is adjusting to life after an accident claimed the lives of his wife and twins leaving him to raise...

I was caught up in the storyline from the beginning. This is an earlier book by Laura V. Hilton, but knew it would be a delightful read. After all she is one of my favorite authors, since I discovered her Amish books as her plots are filled with lovable characters, plots...
