Reader's Opinions

A short book of short stories, each of which can effectively be described as 'neat'. It didn't blow me away, or change the way I thought about short fiction, which I (probably foolishly) expected, given Monteleone's reputation. On the other hand, I enjoyed each and every story, looked forward to the next...

It's been a while, but I am back to the "Little Books" series by Borderlands Press, this time with the owner of the press. This is a short collection of stories by Monteleone, including one new story "The Changing of the Guard." It starts of with a bang, the first story was very weird and stays within the theme of Bizarre. The new story...
