Reader's Opinions

This seems like a short story expanded to a novella or short novel. Interesting (and complete) world design, religious oppression taken to an extreme. No real action in the first half, though. The second half is a good story, with...

I picked up this book at Powell's City of Books simply to gawk at the wonderfully weird cover. (Different from the one shown here.) When I read the back, I was intrigued by the concept of the world split into two shifts (day/night) due to over population. It was only $3.50, so I bought. I...
