Reader's Opinions

"still life" Kroll's photography is concerned with set-up & dress-up (models in his studio, mostly), so the images are static in mood and form. There's careful attention to photographic detail (light, color,...

Apparently photographer Eric Kroll sets out to shock with his longstanding fascination with high heels, corsets and garter belts. This selection of his work has a selection of such items and in some instances may well shock the reader. Kroll opened his own photographic studio and contributed regularly to the magazines 'Vogue' and 'Elle'...
