Reader's Opinions

Maybe it didn't light my fire because I haven't read the Vampire Journals. (I didn't even know there were in existence until I read some of the other ratings on this page.) However, I found the writing to be a little murky. So may "don't know why's"...

This seems written for a slightly younger audience: high school. The grammar style is simpler. It's still an interesting story if you like teen angst and peer pressure. But not comparable to the parent series (no pun intended). With Caitlin, Caleb and Scarlet unable to remember their past, the first order of business is to return it...
