Reader's Opinions

A somewhat unusual Perry Mason novel. Compare the cruise ship scene in this book with a similar scene in Raymond Chandler's Farewell My Lovely. Chandler does it better, but the setting for this Gardner book is a variation off his usual. Still, if you like Perry Mason novels, as I do, it works.

This is a locked-room mystery that's a little different from your typical Perry Mason mystery. And it's early enough in the series that Mason still plays it a little more fast-and-loose...
