

THE SOUL WINNER

English evangelist C. H. Spurgeon, one of the most popular preachers of the late 19th century, was so renowned for converting nonbelievers to Christianity that he earned the sobriquet "the soul-winner." Here, in his classic work on the process and power of preaching, Spurgeon shares his anecdotes and advice on bringing hearts to God. He discusses: . what it means to win...

Peek Inside the Book

We have not only to be witnesses and pleaders, but we have also to be examples... If a man's life at home is unworthy, he should go several miles away before he stands up to preach, and then, when he stands up, he should say nothing. Charles Haddon Spurgeon, The...

To introduce unconverted persons to the church, is to weaken and degrade it; and therefore an apparent gain may be a real loss. Charles Haddon Spurgeon, The Soul Winner: How To Lead Sinners To The Saviour
