

LE WANKH

Adam Reith, abandonné sur l'hostile planète Tschai, accepte de conduire l'expédition qui doit ramener de l'autre côté du continent la princesse Ylin-Ylan. Elle était retenue prisonnière, loin de son pays natal, celui des Hommes-Wankh. Reith sait que ce peuple est technologiquement avancé et il espère obtenir un vaisseau en gage de reconnaissance. Rien n'est facile au cours de ce voyage. Adam doit affronter des nomades et autres peuplades des steppes, qui risquent à chaque instant de le voler, de le tuer ou de le réduire en esclavage....

Peek Inside the Book

It occurs to me that the man and his religion are one and the same thing. The unknown exists. Each man projects on the blankness the shape of his own particular world-view. He endows his creation with his personal...

Reader's Opinions

After the tiresome rambling of the first volume of the series "City of the Chasch" (unto which I bequeathed, like some magnanimous tsar, a full two stars) it was nice to find that the plot of "Servants of the Wankh" emerged organically from character motivation. How can my standards in...

Continuacin directa del anterior libro donde se nos narra el accidente de Adam Reith y sus primeras aventuras por el planeta Tschai. En este caso el libro comienza con el viaje a Cath para devolver a su hogar a una princesa rescatada pero pronto el libro no tendr...
